Texas law recognizes three marital estates: the community estate, owned by the spouses together; the husband's separate estate; and the wife's separate estate. A spouse's separate estate consists of (1) the property owned or claimed by the spouse before marriage; (2) the property acquired by the spouse during marriage through gift, will, or inheritance; (3) the recovery for personal injuries sustained by the spouse during marriage, except any recovery for loss of earning capacity during marriage; and (4) the property set aside to the spouse by an agreement between the spouses. The community estate consists of all other property, other than separate property, acquired by either spouse during marriage.
